RE: MIODONKA, STANLEY

Above was living in Canada (Windsor) when he married in 1944 to a Buffalo, N. Y. girl and then moved to Buffalo and sometime prior to that he bought her a fur coat in Canada and paid a duty in USA on the same (this is some evidence that marriage was purely for convenience of the above). He moved in with his in laws and then purchased a home with his wife and started a bank account with his wife. In the new home, his in laws came along and his wife was giving her brother some of the above's money which he would bet on the horses while being unemployed: finally when he asked to wife to request her family to move into upper unit of the house, there was a rumpus. He was scared that they would beat him up and most of the time, he slept alone (question here wehter marriage was consummated) while wife slept with her mother.

He went to see a lawyer because it was his home but he was afraid of getting beat up, and was advised to leave house; wife started divorce action in Buffalo, I believed, and since the only grounds for divorce in NY is adultery, she failed and then went to Rochester, N. Y. and started one for annulment and his lawyer and her lawyer got together and he was convinced that she did not care to live with him and it was allowed (but this may be the ground that the marriage was never consummated and therefore the above entered illegally) sometime in 1947 because it has a retroactive effect. There was a division of property.

The annulment action was not defended because advised by lawyer that she would not go back to him anyway, so why not have the wife receive the annulment without a contest.

No. A-6 074 767

To CHIEF, INVESTIGATIONS BRANCH

Or to any officer in the service of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service

WHEREAS, from evidence submitted to me, it appears that the alien

who entered this country at Detroit, Michigan on the 20th day of June, 1945 has been found in the United States in violation of the immigration laws thereof, and is subject to be taken into custody and deported pursuant to the following provisions of law, and for the following reasons, to wit:

Sec. 241(a)(1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, in that, at the time of entry, he was within one or more of the classes of aliens excludable by the law existing at the time of such entry, to wit, a person not entitled to admission on the preference-quota visa which he presented upon arrival for the reason that such visa was obtained through fraud by contracting a marriage, which, after entry, has been judicially annulled retroactively to the date of such marriage, under sec. 3 of the Act of May 14, 1937.

I, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the laws of the United States, hereby command you to take into custody the said alien and grant him a hearing to enable him to show cause why he should not be deported in conformity with law. The expenses of detention, hereunder, if necessary, are authorized payable from the appropriation "Salaries and Expenses, Immigration and Naturalization Service, 1956."

For so doing, this shall be your sufficient warrant.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
Immigration and Naturalization Service
Buffalo, New York.

File No. A-6074767

Sworn statement made by LILLIAN T. LONCZAK on December 4, 1951, before Investigator Walter A. Berschel at 220 Delaware Avenue, Buffalo, N.Y. in connection with petition for naturalization filed by Stanley NIODONKA. Testimony given in the English language. Statement taken in shorthand and transcribed by Virginia B. Dambach, Stenographer.

INVESTIGATOR TO DEPONENT:

Q. You are advised that I am an investigator of the United States Immigration & Naturalization Service. As such I am empowered by law to administer oaths and take testimony from persons, touching on their rights to enter, pass through, or reside in the United States, as well as in any other matters pertaining to the enforcement of the immigration and naturalization laws. You are advised that your statement may be used as evidence against you in this or in any other proceeding under the laws of the United States. Any statement which you make at this time must be made voluntarily on your part. Do you understand?
A. Yes.

Q. The regulations say that I am to advise you at this time of the penalty for perjury. You are warned that if you willfully and knowingly make any false statement in this proceeding as to anything which is important as to the decision to be made in this case, you may be prosecuted for perjury, the penalty for which is imprisonment of not more than five years or a fine of $2000, or both such fine and imprisonment. Perjury in the sense just used means a false statement willfully and knowingly made under oath on a material point before a competent tribunal in an authorized proceeding. Do you understand?
A. Yes.

Q. Are you willing to make a sworn statement at this time under these conditions?
A. Yes.

Q. Will you please stand and raise your right hand so that I can swear you in? (Complies.) Do you solemnly swear that all the statements you are about to make will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?
A. Yes, I do.

Q. Would you please state your full, true, and correct name?
A. Miss Lillian T. Lonczak.

Q. Of what country are you a citizen?
A. Of the United States.

Q. And by what reason?
A. By birth.

Q. At the present time where do you reside?
A. At 396 Walden Avenue.

Q. Have you ever used or been known by any other name?
A. Yes. I was married and my name was Mrs. Lillian Miodonka. Those are the only two names that I have ever had.

Q. Where and on what date was this marriage contracted?
A. In the Corpus Christi Church in Buffalo, New York, on the 28th of June 1944.

Q. At the present time to whom are you married?
A. I am not married.

Q. In your own words would you please describe what proceeding you went through regarding the termination of your first marriage.
A. I got an annulment on April 15, 1947, in Rochester, New York, in the Supreme Court, county of Monroe, State of New York.

Q. Do you know when and where your former husband was born?
A. From his statements I understand that he was born in Poland.

Q. And what year was he born? Do you know?
A. Well, he is close to fifty.

Q. On what occasion did you become acquainted with your former husband?
A. I met him in Canada through my cousin in 1943. I went with my cousin to Windsor, Ontario, for a visit. My cousin and another girl came from Springfield, Massachusetts, to Buffalo to visit me. My cousin's name is Mary Miodonka, the same as his, but they are but distantly related. Stefania Skaza is the name of the other girl--that accompanied my cousin on their visit to Buffalo. Just Mary and I went to visit her relations in Windsor, Ontario. Stefania didn't go. I met him at that time.

Q. Since the initial meeting, what transpired between you and Stanley Miodonka?
A. We got acquainted and corresponded. And he stayed where he boarded.

Q. Did he make visits here to Buffalo to see you?
A. Yes.

Q. On how many occasions did he do that?
A. About three or four times.

Q. And then what happened?
A. We corresponded a while and then we decided that we wanted to get married.

Q. At the time of your marriage had your intended husband been admitted to the United States as a permanent resident?
A. No, that happened after marriage. After we got married he got his visa and was admitted to the United States for permanent residence.

Q. In your own words would you please state the reason or reasons for the annulment of this marriage?
A. He made false promises regarding supporting me, furnishing a home for me, and to have children. After I married him and he obtained his visa he told me that he had no intentions of keeping any of the promises he had made. He just wanted to get into United States.

Q. Is it your whole-hearted belief then that Stanley Miodonka married you solely to gain admission to the United States as a permanent resident?
A. That's right.

Q. That he entered into the marriage contract wholely for the purpose of coming here to live and obtain a quota preference visa to which he was entitled having married a United States citizen?
A. That's right.

Q. Prior to the time of your marriage to Stanley Miodonka did he make any promises to you regarding the payment of money or gratuities, if you would enter into a marriage contract with him?
A. He made no such promises.

Q. In other words you entered into this marriage with the idea of having a home provided and to receive only a just share regarding property or other wealth?
A. That's right.

Q. On any occasion did your former husband ever pay or give you any sum of money?
A. Yes. Prior to the time that he came into the United States he sent me on one occasion $700 and on another occasion $300 which I placed in my account at the Buffalo Savings Bank, Buffalo, N.Y. After he received his preference quota visa and came to the United States we opened up a joint account at the Buffalo Savings Bank in Buffalo.

Q. How much money did you have in this bank account which was solely your own?
A. I had about $800 or $900 of my own money.

Q. On any occasion did you ever withdraw any funds other than the money which belonged solely to yourself?

A. When we bought the house at 396 Waldon Avenue in 1945, we took all the money out.

Q. How soon after your marriage was contracted did you find out that your former husband did not intend to keep the promises that he made to you?

A. About a month after he came to the United States he wouldn't go with me to the show, he didn't want any conversation but would argue and be elusive and go out by himself. He wouldn't give me any money. We were living with my mother and sister in the lower flat of a home that we had purchased. There were people living in the upper flat and they couldn't find a place to live so we couldn't force them to get out. He said he had no intentions of living in the upper flat with me. He said he didn't want to live with me as man and wife and that he didn't want any children. From time to time he quarreled with me and my family and went away for a while, and then finally he left for good. He got an eviction notice against me and my mother and we went to Judge Kelly and explained that the family gave $1000 toward the purchase of the house, a loan without interest, so that they could live downstairs. And then Judge Kelly threw it out of court. Then he went to the woman upstairs and said, "You don't pay her any more. You pay it to me." Then he got the rent until the annulment was settled. Then the settlement was made--fifty fifty on the money and the property, but not the furniture. The house was put up for sale and the family, not having any place to live, bought it from him. He paid originally $5,250 and the family bought it for $5,850. He even stopped a fellow on the street and said, "Don't pay her the garage rent, pay me." But he, being American, continued to pay me because he had rented from me, but he got out quickly because he didn't want any trouble.

Q. Since the annulment proceedings, have you made or had any contact with Stanley Miodonka?

A. Yes, when we were in the attorney's office at the time that the estate was settled.

Q. Did your family physician ever advise you that you should not have relations with your former husband?

A. No.

Q. During the time that you were married to Stanley Miodonka, were you under doctor's care or treatment for any reason?

A. No. The only time I went to see my doctor was after Stanley twisted my arm and knocked me down and it required medical attention.

Q. About how long did you live as man and wife with Stanley Miodonka?

A. About a year prior to the time he came to the United States; we were married and I used to visit him. And after he came to the United States we lived together in a man and wife relationship for about four months.

Q. During the time of your marriage, do you recall ever becoming involved with the United States Customs Service in the purchasing of a fur coat in Canada?

A. When those arguments started, after Stanley was living with me, one night he was sitting by the table and he said, "Do you think I'm a dumb Hunky?" He said, "I have got a fur coat, a diamond ring, and silverware into the United States without paying any duty on it. That'll show you how smart I am." The following day my brother-in-law, Michael Nowak, and I went and reported it to Agent Kane at the Customs Office, United States Post Office Building. Then Mr. Kane came down and I gave him all the articles. After they ruled on it, they told me that I had first claim on it, and so I paid the duty which was $174 and some change. Now I have all the articles. I have the papers from the United States Customs Service showing that I paid the duty on these articles. Mr. Kane told us that Stanley had to pay the fine for bringing these articles into the United States without declaring them.

Q. In your own words will you please state briefly the reasons again, which we have already set forth, regarding your annulment and the reason the subject entered into the marriage contract with you.

A. Before I was married I believed all the promises he made to me and I married him with the idea of living as man and wife and having a home and raising a family. After I lived with him I found out that these things were impossible because of his attitude toward me, because he was uncooperative and because of his abusive nature. He can put on an act and I was the one to fall for it. I believe his purpose in marrying me was so that he could move to the United States to live permenently. He attempted to stir up all my neighbors against me. He attempted to cause me as much grief and trouble as he possibly could.

Q. On any occasion did your former husband ever contribute financially to your support?

A. Once in a while he would throw me $5 or $6 which was supposed to be for room and board for him and me. We were paying $12 a week for room and board.

Q. Have you understood all the questions that I have asked you?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. Have all the answers to the questions that I have asked you been made voluntarily on your part and without duress or coersion on anyone else's part?

A. Yes.

Q. After this statement has been typed you will be given an opportunity to read it and to make any changes which you feel should be made, and you will then be requested to attach your signature to it. Do you understand?
A. Yes.

Q. Will you please affix your signature to the stenographer's notebook attesting to the fact that you appeared here this date?
A. Yes.--She signs: Miss Lillian T. Lonczak, 396 Walden Ave.

Certified a correct transcript.

A. I married her July 31, 1948, Springfield, Massachusetts.

Q. Have you ever had any difficulty with the Customs authorities, either the Canadian or American authorities?
A. In 1944 I married my wife, shortly after our marriage my wife, Lillian Lonczak Miodonka, came to visit me in Canada, as I had been there awaiting action on my wife's application for a visa for me. She and I went to a Canadian fur-shop and bought a $500 fur coat. The fur coat did not fit her and had to be altered. She returned to Buffalo,New York, and at Christmastime 1944, I went to the Canadian fur shop where we had bought the fur coat, picked up the coat and took it with me on the train to Buffalo, New York; my wife had the coat that Christmas. When my wife and I had family trouble she wrote to the Customs in Buffalo and told them that I had brought in a coat from Canada without paying duty on it. The Customs at Buffalo questioned me and I had to pay $152 in duty. My wife had to pay a fine of about $200, my lawyer told me that this was the amount she had to pay in fines.

A. No.

Q. Has your present wife, Stella, nee Stasiak, Miodonka, ever been previously married?
A. No.

A. No.

Q. Have you ever been a member of, or affiliated with in any way, the Communist Party or any offshoot, subsidiary, or affiliate thereof?
A. No.

Q. From your memory, when were you naturalized as a Canadian citizen?

NOTE: Submits Canadian passport numbered 112182, in the name of Stanley Miodonka, which bears notation: "British Subject by Naturalization, by Canadian Imperial Act # 84166-A dated 10 Nov. 1931". There is also attached thereto Form 686-B, Non-Resident Alien's Border Crossing Identification Card No. 523448, issued at Windsor, Ontario, Canada, September (?) 1941. Passport returned.

Q. Do you think you will be able to read and understand this statement which you have made here today?
A. Yes.

(Signed) Stanley Miodonka

before we were married. I met her thereafter three or four times more before I married her.

Q. Did you ever question your wife, Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka why she married you?
A. I asked why did you marry me.

Q. And what did she say to that?
A. She said she was sick and she was going to have an operation and she was no good for a man.

Q. And did you encourage her to have the operation?
A. Yes, I wanted her to get fixed up and I wanted her to go to the doctor with me, but she did not want to. I wanted to have her leave her mother and her two sisters and brother, and have our home upstairs and I was going to have the people move out. But she got after me and right after that she threw me out.

Q. How long did you live in the same house with Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka, after she left your bed?
A. About eight or ten months.

Q. Did she get your meals for you during this time or did you get your own meals?
A. Yes, she got my meals and made up my bed and looked after my room for several months and after that she didn't do anything for me.

Q. Did you ever have any other difficulties with the Canadian or American Customs authorities?
A. My wife and I bought some silverware in Canada after we were married and she brought it down to the United States. It was a package of knifes, forks and spoons--we paid something like $40 for it in a store in Canada. She put it in a clothes grip and took it to her home in Buffalo. We bought it sometime in 1944 and in 1947 after she had forced me out of our home, she wrote to the Customs in Buffalo, N. Y. and blamed me. I paid about $152 for the fur coat that I told you about and the silverware, and she had to pay a fine of some $200 as my lawyer, Leonard R. Lipowicz, who represented me told me.

Q. Did you ever have any other trouble with the Customs Authorities, either in Canada or the United States?
A. Well, she also reported that I had taken an engagement ring over from Canada, which I paid about $245, before our marriage, and this was taken care of in the $152 fee which was paid to the Customs.

Q. Did you mean to cheat the United States Government out of the money rightfully owed it by evading to declare these items?
A. No, I did not mean to cheat the government. My wife asked me to bring the fur coat over from the tailor who was altering it. And when I brought it over and brought over the ring, I didn't know about the law. I did not mean to violate the law. My wife brought over the silverware. My wife was assessed the fine. My lawyer has all the facts on it.

Q. Were you brought into court by the U.S. Customs?
A. No, my lawyer and I went down to the Customs Office in Buffalo,N.Y. and we explained everything and after I paid the $152 everything was all right. I was then not living with my wife--she had forced me out of our home and wrote to the Customs to get back at me.

Q. I should like to know whether Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka in any way had true grounds for the annulment of your marriage to her. In other words, did you, yourself, have any physical disability or merely go through a marriage ceremony with Lillian, and then refuse to act as a husband toward her?
A. I did not refuse to act as a husband--I wanted her to go to a doctor with me when she refused to have any sexual relations with me. I tried to act as a husband, but she would not let me. I have no physical disability. She was the one who refused and I tried to have her go to a doctor, but she would not come to the doctor.

Q. Did you have any knowledge prior to your marriage to Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka, that after you would marry her, she would fail or refuse to fulfill her marriage promises?
A. No. She told me after I married her. If I knew, I would not have married her. She caused me a lot of trouble; I got nervous trouble after all this happened and I had to go to a hospital in Buffalo, N Y. and be operated on for nervous stomach disorder--it cost me about $900. She cleaned me out--I got about $1700 from the property and I had very little left after I had paid the hospital bills and my lawyer's bill.

Q. Did you in any way enter marriage with Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka for any fraudulent purpose, either upon her or upon the United States Government, by attempting to come to the United States as a preference quota visa applicant?
A. I wanted to live with her as any husband lives with his wife--I was h honest in all my purposes. I did not want to come to the United States with the idea that the marriage would turn out the way it did.

Q. Do you think that you understood all the questions?
A. Yes.

Q. And do you think you can read and understand this statement you have made?
A. Yes. (I have read the foregoing and solemnly swear that it is a true and correct record of the statement made by me on this day.) (Signed) Stanley Miodonka

Sworn statement made by LILLIAN T. LONCZAK on December 4, 1951, before Investigator Walter A. Berschel at 220 Delaware Avenue, Buffalo, N.Y. in connection with petition for naturalization filed by Stanley MIODONKA. Testimony given in the English language. Statement taken in shorthand and transcribed by Virginia B. Dambach, Stenographer.

INVESTIGATOR TO DEPONENT:

Q. You are advised that I am an investigator of the United States Immigration & Naturalization Service. As such I am empowered by law to administer oaths and take testimony from persons, touching on their rights to enter, pass through, or reside in the United States, as well as in any other matters pertaining to the enforcement of the immigration and naturalization laws. You are advised that your statement may be used as evidence against you in this or in any other proceeding under the laws of the United States. Any statement which you make at this time must be made voluntarily on your part. Do you understand?
A. Yes.

Q. The regulations say that I am to advise you at this time of the penalty for perjury. You are warned that if you willfully and knowingly make any false statement in this proceeding as to anything which is important as to the decision to be made in this case, you may be prosecuted for perjury, the penalty for which is imprisonment of not more than five years or a fine of $2000, or both such fine and imprisonment. Perjury in the sense just used means a false statement willfully and knowingly made under oath on a material point before a competent tribunal in an authorized proceeding. Do you understand?
A. Yes.

Q. Are you willing to make a sworn statement at this time under these conditions?
A. Yes.

Q. Will you please stand and raise your right hand so that I can swear you in? (Complies.) Do you solemnly swear that all the statements you are about to make will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?
A. Yes, I do.

Q. Would you please state your full, true, and correct name?
A. Miss Lillian T. Lonczak.

Q. Of what country are you a citizen?
A. Of the United States.

Q. And by what reason?
A. By birth.

Q. At the present time where do you reside?
A. At 396 Walden Avenue.

Q. Have you ever used or been known by any other name?
A. Yes. I was married and my name was Mrs. Lillian Miodonka. Those are the only two names that I have ever had.

Q. Where and on what date was this marriage contracted?
A. In the Corpus Christi Church in Buffalo, New York, on the 28th of June 1944.

Q. At the present time to whom are you married?
A. I am not married.

Q. In your own words would you please describe what proceeding you went through regarding the termination of your first marriage.
A. I got an annulment on April 15, 1947, in Rochester, New York, in the Supreme Court, county of Monroe, State of New York.

Q. Do you know when and where your former husband was born?
A. From his statements I understand that he was born in Poland.

Q. And what year was he born? Do you know?
A. Well, he is close to fifty.

Q. On what occasion did you become acquainted with your former husband?
A. I met him in Canada through my cousin in 1943. I went with my cousin to Windsor, Ontario, for a visit. My cousin and another girl came from Springfield, Massachusetts, to Buffalo to visit me. My cousin's name is Mary Miodonka, the same as his, but they are but distantly related. Stefania Skaza is the name of the other girl--that accompanied my cousin on their visit to Buffalo. Just Mary and I went to visit her relations in Windsor, Ontario. Stefania didn't go. I met him at that time.

Q. Since the initial meeting, what transpired between you and Stanley Miodonka?
A. We got acquainted and corresponded. And he stayed where he boarded.

Q. Did he make visits here to Buffalo to see you?
A. Yes.

Q. On how many occasions did he do that?
A. About three or four times.

Q. And then what happened?
A. We corresponded a while and then we decided that we wanted to get married.

Q. At the time of your marriage had your intended husband been admitted to the United States as a permanent resident?
A. No, that happened after marriage. After we got married he got his visa and was admitted to the United States for permanent residence.

Q. In your own words would you please state the reason or reasons for the annulment of this marriage?
A. He made false promises regarding supporting me, furnishing a home for me, and to have children. After I married him and he obtained his visa he told me that he had no intentions of keeping any of the promises he had made. He just wanted to get into United States.

Q. Is it your whole-hearted belief then that Stanley Miodonka married you solely to gain admission to the United States as a permanent resident?
A. That's right.

Q. That he entered into the marriage contract wholely for the purpose of coming here to live and obtain a quota preference visa to which he was entitled having married a United States citizen?
A. That's right.

Q. Prior to the time of your marriage to Stanley Miodonka did he make any promises to you regarding the payment of money or gratuities, if you would enter into a marriage contract with him?
A. He made no such promises.

Q. In other words you entered into this marriage with the idea of having a home provided and to receive only a just share regarding property or other wealth?
A. That's right.

Q. On any occasion did your former husband ever pay or give you any sum of money?
A. Yes. Prior to the time that he came into the United States he sent me on one occasion $700 and on another occasion $300 which I placed in my account at the Buffalo Savings Bank, Buffalo, N.Y. After he received his preference quota visa and came to the United States we opened up a joint account at the Buffalo Savings Bank in Buffalo.

Q. How much money did you have in this bank account which was solely your own?
A. I had about $800 or $900 of my own money.

Q. On any occasion did you ever withdraw any funds other than the money which belonged solely to yourself?

A. When we bought the house at 396 Waldon Avenue in 1945, we took all the money out.

Q. How soon after your marriage was contracted did you find out that your former husband did not intend to keep the promises that he made to you?
A. About a month after he came to the United States he wouldn't go with me to the show, he didn't want any conversation but would argue and be elusive and go out by himself. He wouldn't give me any money. We were living with my mother and sister in the lower flat of a home that we had purchased. There were people living in the upper flat and they couldn't find a place to live so we couldn't force them to get out. He said he had no intentions of living in the upper flat with me. He said he didn't want to live with me as man and wife and that he didn't want any children. From time to time he quarreled with me and my family and went away for a while, and then finally he left for good. He got an eviction notice against me and my mother and we went to Judge Kelly and explained that the family gave $1000 toward the purchase of the house, a loan without interest, so that they could live downstairs. And then Judge Kelly threw it out of court. Then he went to the woman upstairs and said, "You don't pay her any more. You pay it to me." Then he got the rent until the annulment was settled. Then the settlement was made--fifty fifty on the money and the property, but not the furniture. The house was put up for sale and the family, not having any place to live, bought it from him. He paid originally $5,250 and the family bought it for $5,850. He even stopped a fellow on the street and said, "Don't pay her the garage rent, pay me." But he, being American, continued to pay me because he had rented from me, but he got out quickly because he didn't want any trouble.

Q. Since the annulment proceedings, have you made or had any contact with Stanley Miodonka?
A. Yes, when we were in the attorney's office at the time that the estate was settled.

Q. Did your family physician ever advise you that you should not have relations with your former husband?
A. No.

Q. During the time that you were married to Stanley Miodonka, were you under doctor's care or treatment for any reason?
A. No. The only time I went to see my doctor was after Stanley twisted my arm and knocked me down and it required medical attention.

Q. About how long did you live as man and wife with Stanley Miodonka?
A. About a year prior to the time he came to the United States; we were married and I used to visit him. And after he came to the United States we lived together in a man and wife relationship for about four months.

Q. During the time of your marriage, do you recall ever becoming involved with the United States Customs Service in the purchasing of a fur coat in Canada?

A. When those arguments started, after Stanley was living with me, one night he was sitting by the table and he said, "Do you think I'm a dumb Hunky?" He said, "I have got a fur coat, a diamond ring, and silverware into the United States without paying any duty on it. That'll show you how smart I am." The following day my brother-in-law, Michael Nowak, and I went and reported it to Agent Kane at the Customs Office, United States Post Office Building. Then Mr. Kane came down and I gave him all the articles. After they ruled on it, they told me that I had first claim on it, and so I paid the duty which was $174 and some change. Now I have all the articles. I have the papers from the United States Customs Service showing that I paid the duty on these articles. Mr. Kane told us that Stanley had to pay the fine for bringing these articles into the United States without declaring them.

Q. In your own words will you please state briefly the reasons again, which we have already set forth, regarding your annulment and the reason the subject entered into the marriage contract with you.

A. Before I was married I believed all the promises he made to me and I married him with the idea of living as man and wife and having a home and raising a family. After I lived with him I found out that these things were impossible because of his attitude toward me, because he was uncooperative and because of his abusive nature. He can put on an act and I was the one to fall for it. I believe his purpose in marrying me was so that he could move to the United States to live permenently. He attempted to stir up all my neighbors against me. He attempted to cause me as much grief and trouble as he possibly could.

Q. On any occasion did your former husband ever contribute financially to your support?

A. Once in a while he would throw me $5 or $6 which was supposed to be for room and board for him and me. We were paying $12 a week for room and board.

Q. Have you understood all the questions that I have asked you?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. Have all the answers to the questions that I have asked you been made voluntarily on your part and without duress or coersion on anyone else's part?

A. Yes.

Q. After this statement has been typed you will be given an opportunity to read it and to make any changes which you feel should be made, and you will then be requested to attach your signature to it. Do you understand?
A. Yes.

Q. Will you please affix your signature to the stenographer's notebook attesting to the fact that you appeared here this date?
A. Yes.--She signs: Miss Lillian T. Lonczak, 396 Walden Ave.

Certified a correct transcript.

Continued------

Q. Did you live as man and wife with Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka?
A. I lived with her two months as man and wife. After two months she no longer lived with me as a wife; she slept with her mother and her sister, but we all lived in the same house, in Buffalo, on Walden Street.

Q. Did you have any kind of an agreement with Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka, to enter into marriage so that you could come to the United States as a preference quota visa applicant?
A. No.

Q. When you came to the United States on June 20, 1945, what was your financial condition?

A. I had $1000 in a Detroit bank, I brought $1000 with me, and before I entered the United States with my visa I had given my wife $1100.

Q. When your wife, Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka, had the marriage annulled, was there a property settlement?
A. Yes, sir, half and half.

Q. Do you mean that the property was divided evenly between yourself and your spouse, Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka?
A. Yes.

Q. Was the house that you purchased in Buffalo, New York, on Walden Street, sold or was it given to your wife?
A. She bought my interest, I believe her brother and sister helped her out.

Q. How old was your first wife, Lillian Lonczak Miodonka?
A. I believe she was about 11 years younger than I am.

Q. How soon after your marriage was annulled, did you marry your present spouse, Stella Stasiak Miodonka?
A. I married her July 31, 1948, Springfield, Massachusetts.

Q. Have you ever had any difficulty with the Customs authorities, either the Canadian or American authorities?
A. In 1944 I married my wife, shortly after our marriage my wife, Lillian Lonczak Miodonka, came to visit me in Canada, as I had been there awaiting action on my wife's application for a visa for me. She and I went to a Canadian fur shop and bought a $500 fur coat. The fur coat did not fit her and had to be altered. She returned to Buffalo,New York, and at Christmastime 1944, I went to the Canadian fur shop where we had bought the fur coat, picked up the coat and took it with me on the train to Buffalo, New York; my wife had the coat that Christmas. When my wife and I had family trouble she wrote to the Customs in Buffalo and told them that I had brought in a coat from

Canada without paying duty on it. The Customs at Buffalo questioned me and I had to pay $152 in duty. My wife had to pay a fine of about $200, my lawyer told me that this was the amount she had to pay in fines.

Q. Have you ever had any other difficulties with either the Canadian or American Customs authorities?
A. No.

Q. Has your present wife, Stella, nee Stasiak, Miodonka, ever been previously married?
A. No.

Q. Do you have any children by your present marriage?

Q. Where was your present wife born?
A. She was born in Chicopee, Massachusetts, about June 1912.

Q. Have you ever been a member of, or affiliated in any way with, the Labor Progressive Party of Canada?
A. No.

Q. Have you ever been a member of, or affiliated with in any way, the Communist Party or any offshoot, subsidiary, or affiliate thereof?
A. No.

Q. From your memory, when were you naturalized as a Canadian citizen?
A. September 21, 1931, I believe; I had my paper but it's home. I have my passport here and I think it is shown in that.

NOTE: Submits Canadian passport numbered 112182, in the name of Stanley Miodonka, which bears notation: "British Subject by Naturalization, by Canadian Imperial Act-# 84166-A dated 10 Nov. 1931". Passport also indicates Polish first preference quota 2476 issuedJune 11, 1945, at Windsor, Ontario, Canada, and stamped to show admission June 19, 1945, Detroit, Michigan. There is also attached thereto Form 686-B, Non-Resident Alien's Border Crossing Identification Card No. 523448, issued at Windsor, Ontario, Canada, September (?) 1941. Passport returned.

Q. Do you think you will be able to read and understand this statement which you have made here today?
A. Yes.

(Signed) Stanley Miodonka

Q. I asked you a few minutes ago whether you had lived as man and wife with Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka, and you answered you lived with her for two months, sleeping in the same bed with her--and then she no longer slept with you, but slept with her mother and her sister. Is that right?
A. Yes.

Q. I am wondering whether you understand my question. When I ask you whether you lived as man and wife with Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka, I mean whether you had sexual intercourse with her?
A. No, I tried but she would not let me touch her.

Q. Then, I take it that while you and Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka slept in the same bed for a period of two months after you had come to the United States, in all that time you had never had sexual intercourse with her?
A. I never had intercourse with her.

Q. Did you ever have intercourse with her?
A. Not even once.

Q. Did you take Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka to a doctor to learn why she refused to have intercourse with you and fulfill her duties as a wife?
A. I wanted to take her to a doctor--I tried several times, and she did not want to go to a doctor. My wife's brother, Frank, used to come in our room with a searchlight. I told him to leave our room. She just wanted to get my earnings.

Q. Did you contest the annulment proceedings instituted by your wife?
A. I hired a lawyer, Leonard L. Lipowicz, and told him that she caused me so much trouble I didn't want to have anything more to do with her; that if she wanted an annulment it was all right with me as I didn't want to have anything more to do with her.

Q. Did you buy the house with your own money or was money contributed in the purchase of the house by Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka's
A. When I was working in Canada, after I had married her, I sent her $25 every month. I had given her on two occasions money, once $500 and another time $600. When I bought the house she took out $1100. from the bank and helped to buy the property, but that $1100 was money I gave her. Up to the time I married her she had nothing.

Q. Was there any kind of a proposition or agreement between you and Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka whereby she agreed to go through a ceremony of marriage with you and nothing more?
A. No.

Q. When did you immigrate to Canada from Poland?
A. In 1926.

Q. How long before you married Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka, did you know her and what were the circumstances of meeting her?
A. She came to Canada with my cousin, Mary Miodonka, about a year before we were married. I met her thereafter three or four times more before I married her.

Q. Did you ever question your wife, Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka why she married you?
A. I asked why did you marry me.

Q. And what did she say to that?
A. She said she was sick and she was going to have an operation and she was no good for a man.

Q. And did you encourage her to have the operation?
A. Yes, I wanted her to get fixed up and I wanted her to go to the doctor with me, but she did not want to. I wanted to have her leave her mother and her two sisters and brother, and have our home upstairs and I was going to have the people move out. But she got after me and right after that she threw me out.

Q. How long did you live in the same house with Lillian, nee Lonczak, Miodonka, after she left your bed?
A. About eight or ten months.

Q. Did she get your meals for you during this time or did you get your own meals?
A. Yes, she got my meals and made up my bed and looked after my room for several months and after that she didn't do anything for me.

Q. Did you ever have any other difficulties with the Canadian or American Customs authorities?
A. My wife and I bought some silverware in Canada after we were married and she brought it down to the United States. It was a package of knifes, forks and spoons--we paid something like $40 for it in a store in Canada. She put it in a clothes grip and took it to her home in Buffalo. We bought it sometime in 1944 and in 1947 after she had forced me out of our home, she wrote to the Customs in Buffalo, N. Y. and blamed me. I paid about $152 for the fur coat that I told you about and the silverware, and she had to pay a fine of some $200 as my lawyer, Leonard R. Lipowicz, who represented me told me.

Q. Did you ever have any other trouble with the Customs Authorities, either in Canada or the United States?
A. Well, she also reported that I had taken an engagement ring over from Canada, which I paid about $245, before our marriage, and this was taken care of in the $152 fee which was paid to the Customs.

Q. Did you mean to cheat the United States Government out of the money rightfully owed it by evading to declare these items?
A. No, I did not mean to cheat the government. My wife asked me to bring the fur coat over from the tailor who was altering it. And when I brought it over and brought over the ring, I didn't know about the law. I did not mean to violate the law. My wife brought over the silverware. My wife was assessed the fine. My lawyer

Dear Sir:

I first met Stanley Miodonka when he and his wife contracted to purchase the premises at #396 Walden Avenue, Buffalo, New York. The contract for the purchase of this property was dated September 24, 1945, and the transfer of title was completed by the recording of a deed and a purchase money mortgage on or about November 5, 1945.

On July 19, 1946, Mrs. Miodonka commenced an action against her husband for separation. The action was based on alleged cruel and inhuman treatment on the part of Stanley Miodonka. Immediately upon the service of the summons and complaint, an answer was interposed in and by which each and every allegation of the complaint was denied. This action was reached for trial, but the plaintiff failed and refused to prosecute. During the month of November, 1946, an application was made to the Supreme Court of Erie County for an order dismissing the action for want of prosecution, and as a result of this motion an order was entered on November 22, 1946, dismissing the action.

During the month of November, 1946, and at or about the time when the separation action was dismissed, Mrs. Miodonka, while a resident of Erie County, commenced an action in the City of Rochester, Monroe County, for the annulment of the marriage. After the service of the summons and complaint, an answer was interposed, denying each and every allegation of the complaint. The case was placed on the trial calendar of Monroe County for a term commencing February 3, 1947. On stipulation the action was referred to Hon. Nathan B. Laphan, as official Referee to hear and determine. The official Referee finally set the matter down for a hearing at the City of Rochester, on March 26, 1947. There was some delay and after hours of negotiation the defendant agreed to withdraw the answer and enter into a contract in and by which certain differences and property rights were adjusted between the parties.

On April 15, 1947, Hon. Nathan B. Laphan, the official Referee directed the entry of a judgment annuling the marriage between the plaintiff and defendant, and declaring the same null and void ab initio from the obligations thereof, because of the fraud of the defendant, and the judgment provided that "it is interlocutory only, but shall become a final judgment as of course, three months after filing thereof, unless for sufficient cause, the court in the meantime shall have otherwise ordered, and that upon this judgment becoming the final judgment, the said marriage shall be annulled and declared null and void ab initio, and the parties shall thereby be freed from the obligations thereof."

I believe that this judgment is very significant and of great importance to Mr. Miodonka, since the actual marriage was not dissolved until July 15, 1947. According to the records of this office, Mr. Miodonka arrived in the United States during the month of June, 1945, and the two year period would have expired some time in June, 1947.

I do not know of any life insurance policies in which Mrs. Miodonka was designated as beneficiary.

In the event you wish any specific information, please call on me.

Very truly yours,

S/ LEONARD R. LIPOWICZ
